are seen. If he saw this in Board packet, then he would see District is going negative in that month. that would be a guess. Point is February looks just as bad as April, because having $300,000 in an organization of this size might mean that District does not have $300,000, it might mean negative that much. It's just so hard to predict. If Mike was being pushed for dates, that's what he is going to, the best information he had as of that day.

where the dollars are going. Not only as a tool to be transparent and to educated but also as a planning tool. Looks forward to updates and to see improvements.

Vice President Woo wants to echo what colleagues said, particularly about working with parents. It will bring a fuller body to the work being done. They are the ones who keep reminding us about the Council of Great City Schools Audit. Their input is much value.
