committee's recommendation to lease the property, the board must declare its intent to lease the property by a resolution that is adopted at a regular open meeting by a two-thirds vote of all the board members. (Education Code section 17466). The resolution must describe the property proposed to be leased, specify the minimum rental amount and terms upon which it will be leased (and commission if a broker is involved), and fix a time not less than three weeks thereafter for a public meeting of the stated terms will then be used to determine if a bidder is responsive to the governing board's requirements.

Notice Procedures Based on Type of Property.

If the property is not leased to any of the specified entities enjoying priority as described above, then the school district must offer the property to the general public, including public entities not specifically addressed above, under the following Education Code procedures:

1. Board Meeting to Receive Intent to Lease and Receive Sealed Proposals

2. Board Meeting to Receive Sealed Proposals.

New legislation that became effective on June 27, 2012, gives charter schools interested in surplus school district real property priority to buy or lease such property. Senate Bill (SB) 1016 requires school districts seeking to sell or lease surplus property to offer that property first to any charter school that has ~~been notified by the school district of such property offered for sale or lease by the school~~

Chapter 5: Disposing of school property

A vacant school site and empty buildings are district liabilities. They still require upkeep, maintenance, security, and insurance coverage (in fact, empty buildings may raise insurance costs). Unless the district foresees reopening the

Keep in mind that leasing a school, as opposed to selling it, allows a school district to retain it as a resource in case enrollment increases , as it often does, and facilities are needed again.

But there are statutes governing to what purposes the proceeds from the sale or lease of the property can be used and to whom district property must first be offered. In fact, the California Education Code has numerous relevant

COMPLIANCE WITH NAYLOR ACT

- The Naylor Act at Ed. Code § 17486 sets forth three (3) conditions which must exist for the Act to apply. These conditions are as follows:

(a) Either the whole or a portion of the school site consists of land which is used for school playground, playing field, or other outdoor recreational purposes and open-space land particularly suited for recreational purposes.

(b) The land described in subdivision (a) has been used for one or more of the
