Board. Please fill out a yellow card available at the entrance. Speakers may be called in the order that requests are received, or grouped by subject area. We ask that comments are limited to two (2) minutes with no more than 15 minutes per single topic so that as many people as possible may be heard. By law, the Board is allowed to take action only on items on the agenda. The Board may, at its discretion, refer a matter to district staff or calendar the issue for future discussion.

Public Comment:

Darlene Anderson spoke about what public education is being an African American living in

City of Chicago. She stated that the District Commission has been slow to respond and that it impedes people

President Woo said that there is a requested amendment to Item 8.1b, Approve Personnel Transactions. Joseph Farinias, listed on the last page and as the first name under SEP/RESIGN/RETIRE, claims that he is ~~owed a meeting~~ with the Human Resources Department and asks that his name be nulled from the listing.

projects that make a difference in our schools. Teacher Kim Williams, who won a Center for Green Schools sponsored trip to Antarctica a few years ago, is now leading aquaponics work at the school. Aquaponics is a method of raising plants and aquatic animals together in a system that benefits both. There was also a Green

Apple Day of Service event at Camellia. Volunteers came together to ready the soil in the garden for fall planting. Superintendent Banda thanked the Camellia community for coming out for the event. There will be more information on school gardens at our Project Green 2016 Orientation on Tuesday, October 13th at task force. He wants to make sure that we move forward with that. He has had a lot of requests from people in the community that really want to see the central kitchen happen. With Sacramento as the Farm to Fork Capitol he feels that a central kitchen will fit right in with what is happening here. On Monday, October 12th we will have a meeting on the school calendar and are looking for input from the community. It will be at C. K. McClatchy High School. He will join Principal Lambert next Friday at the C. K. McClatchy parade after school at 3:00 p.m.

Vice President Pritchett reported that she attended a couple back to school nights, including her daughter's who is a Senior at Rosemont High School. She reflected on how lucky our students are to be part of such a unanimously. President Woo then asked C. K. McClatchy High School Principal, and President of United Public Employees (UPE), Peter Lambert to come up. Mr. Lambert said they humbly accept the resolution and noted that administrators within the Sacramento City Unified School District work hard to provide the highest level of education to all students. He thanked the Board for their acknowledgement on behalf of all
