Making it more localized so sites can facilitate their own sessions with parents then parent to parent exchanges. Member Cochrane thank you. Would like to particularly thank the teachers who piloted this because often years are spent mastering a curriculum, honing it and fine tuning it then you're asked suddenly to take on a whole new curriculum probably for just a semester. Diving into it and being able to present it to students in a very meaningful manner. So thank you. Often when we have pilots they change when you actually come to actual text that is adopted. Are we looking at these being changes when we actually adopt the text as well or are we set to go? Iris Taylor, one thing we want to do when we negotiate is, as updates are made, we get those updates. Just recognizing too that we believe we have selected a set of materials is that is extremely strong.

~~Iris Taylor would also like to thank the teachers who participated in this adoption. Just the number of~~
