SACRAMENTO CITY UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD COMMUNICATION

Greetings Administrators,

In a continuing effort to provide district support to our school sites as it relates to attendance, we have come up with the following.

SCUSD attendance percentages consistently show decreased attendance rates on days following school holidays and breaks:

- Day after Halloween
- Day after Veterans Day
- The Monday after Thanksgiving break
- The Monday after winter break
- The Tuesday after Lincoln's Day
- The Tuesday after Presidents Day
- The Monday after Spring Break
- The Tuesday after Memorial Day

Given these facts we are creating (2) incentive days this year. April 21, 2014 and May 27, 2014.

1. Schools will be given their attendance percentages for these dates from 2012-2013.
2. Schools will compete against their own percentages from last year.
3. The schools with the most improved attendance percentages will receive:
 - a. Elementary $1,000 (two Elementary schools will be awarded)
 - b. Middle $1,000
 - c. K-8 $1,000
 - d. High School $1,000
4. Schools can only win once per year.

Schools are encouraged to have a special event on these dates, such as Crazy Hat Day, Twin Day or Pajama Day to promote the day.

Good luck to everyone!

Attendance Challenge

May 27, 2014
Elementary wins $1,000
K-8 wins $1,000
Middle wins $1,000
High wins $1,000

- € There will be (2) Elementary 1st place cash prizes of $1,000 each.
- € Schools are competing against their previous year's attendance percentage for that date (please review the attached percentages).
- € Schools are encouraged to have special events on these dates. For example Crazy Hat Day, Twin Day, Pajama Day.
- € The Schools that improve their percentage the greatest will win the prize.
- € Previous winners are not eligible this round but can still participate!
