Proposition 30 added Article XIII, Section 36 and created in the state general fund an Education Protection Account (EPA) to receive and disburse revenues derived from the incremental increases in taxes imposed by Article XIII, Section 36.

A new, unique, required account code Resource, 1400, was created within the mandated California Educational Standardized Account Code Structure (SACS)

Proposition 30 requires that the use of Education Protection Account (EPA) funds be determined by the governing board at an open public meeting.

Proposition 30 specifies that school districts may not use EPA funds for salaries fits of administrators any other administrative costs .

California Department of Education (CDE) has interpreted that administrative costs as used in Proposition 30, means anything defined as administration in the . Administrative costs include general administration, school administration, and instructional administration:

The activities that EPA funds may be used for are:

- Instruction

- Instructional Library

- Media and Technology

- Ancillary Services (Example Extra-Curricular, Sports)

- Community Services

- Plant Services (Facilities)
