

---

As a pregnant or parenting student, you have legal rights granted by the State and Federal governments, and by the School District. Click the links below to learn more, and if you need help understanding what this means for you, contact one