So, as we all know, there are several holidays for all different people to celebrate, and come together in a merry mood and joyous occasion this month – socially distanced of course!

March is Women's History Month – commemorating and encouraging the study, observance and celebration of the vital role of women in American history.

March 1st: Read Across America Day is on the same day as Texas Independence Day and is a nationally observed holiday.

March 5th: Employee Appreciation Day. This is an important day in March where the very best and hard-working people are honored for all they do for their communities.

March 14th: Daylight savings time. (Widely considered the most confusing time of the year.)

QUARANTINE YEAR IN REVIEW

BY SCUSD STUDENTS

As we approach one full year into a global pandemic, we can all agree that A LOT has changed. To see how SCUSD students have felt about the past year, we decided to ask them!
